

THE DOMINICA EMPLOYERS' FEDERATION.....

..... the national employers' body on labour, employment, organisation, productivity and related labour-market and world-of-work issues. The Federation is also the advocate of the social responsibility of Enterprise and Employers.

PRESENTS:

An interactive transfer of skills and knowledge for HR Professionals, executives and Line managers

CAPTIONED

Workshop Coming: Monday and Tuesday, June 20th and 21st, 2016 Roseau, Dominica

Presented by: Industry Professionals and Content experts

Venue: DPSU Training Facility, Cnr. Valley Road and Windsor Lane, Roseau

Time: 8:45 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. (UTC-04:00) Georgetown, La Paz, San Juan, Dominica

You will learn:

- Are all employees [including part-timers and temporary workers] entitled to paid sick leave?
- Can an employee be terminated for working a second job while he is on sick leave?
- Social profiling.....does it have value in HR?
- How can an employee's presence on social media affect her employment
- What not to do if an employee is arrested by the Police and does not show up for work for three or more days
- Are reference checks for new employees a waste of time?
- How to set realistic performance goals for employees
- When are employers and managerial employees liable for independent contractors' mishaps?
- The worries created by Section 24 of the draft Disaster Management Legislation
- What the Workman's Compensation Ordinance says
- The value of a good induction programme
- Work Permit or CSME Movement of Skilled Labour or both?
- The role of the OSH Institute of Dominica
- "We asked him to resign then gave him a glowing letter of recommendation for a new job"
- And much, much, much more!!

How to Register:

- Complete attached Registration Form and rush to michellemarshall.def@cwdom.dm or def@cwdom.dm or mmarshall@dominicaemployers.com today
- Fax Michelle at 767 448 4474 or Call Michelle at 767 448 2314 or 767 448 7491 today
- SMS or Whatsapp or Mobile Michelle at 767 295 2314 today

The Dominica Employers Federation is recognized by business and industry to offer Professional Development and Management Skills Programmes in the local market. The DEF is the leading provider of employment, staffing, leadership, succession planning, performance management, reward & recognition, organisational development, employee relations, safety, and environmental compliance solutions and has been an acknowledged authority in covering legislation and employment practices for over three decades. Employers know that they can count on DEF's industry-leading compliance and training solutions to keep them out of legal trouble, avoid fines, save money and add value. DEF offers solutions for business owners, executives, employees, and managers of HR, compensation, safety, environmental, or training for all-sized organizations and industries.